In the year of nineteen hundred forty-one, four of the members of the present eighth grade class started to school in Calumet. These were: Lois Meschberger, Laurel Eckelberry, Larry Penwright and Billy Morris.

In 1942 we were joined by Ruth Walls and LaMoyne Micheal.

The following year found several new faces in our group: Norma Smith, Wanda Rohrer, Georgia Sherman, Bill Mansfield, Fred Tech, Sam McMahan, Roy and Lloyd Schweitzer, and Faye Edwards. In 1945 we were very happy to welcome Yvonne Novak into our midst, this making a total of sixteen pupils in the fourth grade. In 1946 we acquired one new member, Edwina Baca from New Mexico. The same year Ruth Walls and LaMoyne Michael left to rejoin us in later years.

The following year Mary Miller and Wesley Statser joined us in the sixth grade and Ruth Walls, after leaving for a while, returned to be with our class again.

In the seventh grade, Paul Hobson was added to our class roll. This year, 1950, Nancy Paulk, Eva Gene Smith, Junior Starr, and LaMoyne Michael joined our number making twenty-two eighth graders in Calumet School this year.

Class History and

Class Will

On a bright autumn day in 1938, fifteen anxious and excited but very happy children skipped gaily off to launch on a voyage which was to carry them through twelve years of adventure—an adventure which was to be shared not only by those beginning as many of them were to chart their course in various direction, but also by those who were to join us on our way. Of that happy throg, only four remained to complete this portion of life's journey at dear old C. H. S. — Lucille Moberly, Carolee Hansen, Martin Power, and David Thompson.

One by one the milestones have been passed under the guiding hands of many pilots. During the first and second years we found Mrs. T. I. Montgomery standing at the helm, giving us aid and instruction and listening to our tales of joy; soothing all our hurts and woes. Following in rapid succession were Miss Francis Quisenberry, Mrs. Jack Randolph, Miss Vera Smith, Mrs. Ira Luttrell, and Mrs. Maude Baker.

As the years went by we added to our little group. At the beginning of the Sophomore year, LaDwand Gregg from Frederick joined us and in the same year we welcomed Lillian Stangl from Okarche and Maxine Korstjens from Kingfisher. During our Junior year, matrimony invaded our ranks claiming Jeanie Knight and Maxine Kourstjens. Georgia Trent came to Calumet from Foss when she was in the eighth grade and, by completing a year's work by correspondence, was to become one of our class in our Senior year.

One of the first highlights of our highschool career was the play during our Junior year. Combining forces with the senior class, we presented a mystery-comedy, "Creeping Shadows". Many memories will be reserved concerning that production because of the complex situations which arose; yet the play was finally successfully presented.

Our most pleasant occasion while Juniors was our excursion to Cedarvale, near Turner Falls. Our most enjoyable entertainment while there was skating. We had many bruises from constant falling but everyone had lots of fun.

This year our class presented a three-act farce, "Hillbilly Courtship". The final production on Nov. the eighteenth was a great success. Everyone who saw it had many hearty laughs.

As we are coming to the close of this portion of life's journey we stand gazing into the future, not knowing what is before us. Yes, we know that there shall be backward glances but they shall be glances recalling happy times,—our trips together; the knowledge of a task well done; our commencement exercises; perhaps a longing for our friends of yesteryear; but a vague and restless feeling calls and beckons us on to higher and greater achievements. We, the class of 1950, break ranks and bid farewell to our friends, schoolmates and the faculty of C.H.S.

.....Carolee Hansen

We, the highschool graduating class of the year 1950, of the city of Calumet, county of Canadian, and state of Oklahoma, being of sixteen individual and distinct parts, being about to pass out of this sphere of education, in full possession of a crammed mind, well-trained memory, and almost superhuman understanding, do make and publish this, our last will and testament hereby revoking and makin void all former wills or promises by us at any time made, or, mayhap, carelessly spoken, one to the other, as the thoughtless wish of an idle hour.

We give, devise, and bequeath unto each of these undergraduates and teachers the following treasures

as it has pleased the Fates and our own strong hands and brains to win for us:

The playing ability of Nodd Kennedy and David Thompson, (we couldn't induce Douglas Smith to surrender his) has been left to the basketball team of next year. Bob Witcher gets Dwana's gift of gab—not that he needs it, or anything!...For better balance and less fumbling of the ball, Caroline Kochenower and Bonnie Paulk will be elated to hear that they have fallen heir to David Thompson's—Ahem! — RATHER large hands and foundations. (Anything for a good girls' basketball team. ... To our classroom teacher, Mr. Doke, we leave the profound admiration and ever-enduring friendship of the class. To anyone who needs it, Gene Cranfill leaves his bluff. (Apply early and avoid the rush!) We, being a thoughtful class, leave to the Freshman Class any wads of gum we may have left on the underside of desks, assembly seats, or any other likely or unlikely places. ... Altus Ayers would like to name as the sole heir to his flaming red hair none other than Wanda Cranfill. (Naturally curly, too, Wanda.) ... As a token of Crannie's appreciation, Gene would like to leave his western appearance, cowboy boots and all, to Ruby Miller. Ruby Griggs wills her ability to get into the movies for 10¢ to Dorothy Lyle.. Carolee names Glen Thompson beneficiary to her musical gifts; "Music hath the charm to soothe the savage beast.. Nodd Kennedy wills his attraction to the girls to Keith Reimers (Make good use of i t, Keith.)... As heir to her constant tardiness, Beverly names Lloyd Davis.. Melvin Lyle, who really enjoys his nap in the typing room from nine to ten, leaves this pleasure to Norma Tully... Lucille Moberly wills her love of poetry and her ability to write it, to Harold Schweitzer...Jack Penwright, as we all know, is always in a hurry and he leaves all this "Get-up-and-go" to Joyce Harman... Martin Power, the Clark Gable of C. H. S., wills his acting ability to Phil Todd (think you will like the part, Phil ?)...Harry Lee Lowder, we are happy to say, falls heir to Loreda Sherman's artistic talent and quiet ways...Douglas Smith was good enough to leave his funny facial expressions on the basketball court to Shermalee Gregg (Let's see you use your inheritance, Sherma.)...To Larry Penwright, Lillian Stangl wills most of her cooking and sewing ability in the hopes that he will make the ideal husband. (take note, Norma Gayle.)...We give to the dear faculty and superintendent, our sincere affection, our heartiest gratitude, and a sweet and unbroken succession of restful nights and peaceful dreams. No longer need they lie awake through the night to wonder over the uncertainty of whether or not we are getting our home work...Georgia Trent leaves her studious attitude and matrimonial ideas (which she won't be needing) to Melvin Lawless..... What hasn't been said, Dwana Gregg leaves to anyone who wants to say it.

Senior Play

"HILLBILLY COURTSHIP"

"THE CLASS VISION"

They had told me I must prophesy, but I knew not what to do;
For I was not born a prophet, any more than one of you;
I had spent the day in study, and in thinking hard and deep;
So I now, all worn and weary, lay me down and fell asleep.
I had lain there but a moment in that slumber, calm and sweet,
When I rose, refreshed and strengthened, and stepped out upon the street.

I was in a mammoth city, by the side of which I knew,
That New York, the nation's glory, would stand but a feeble show;
Great skyscrapers all about me; aeroplanes through all the air;
Wonders far beyond conception here and there, and everywhere.
I could scarce believe my senses when I saw the airship line
Bore the well-known name of "Calumet" while the same gleamed from each sign.
And my eyes were opened wider than they'd ever been before
When I saw a slip of paper dated 1964.

While I puzzled o'er this question, staring 'round with open eyes,
Looking for someone to question of this marvelous surprise,
I beheld near me a lady, coming on with footsteps slow;
And I thought I would accost her and learn what I wished to know.
As she came to me still nearer I thought I had seen that face,
Somewhere else, yet could not put it in exactly the right place;
But at last she stood before me and all wonder vanished quite:
'Twas my old pal Beverly Laughlin and I met her with delight.

It was strange that I should know her for the change in her was great;
She was very tall and slender, while she moved with queenly state.
She seemed quite surprised to see me, said I long had been away,
And gave me an invitation to remain with her that day.
Her kind offer I accepted and she took me by the hand--
Led me to a nearby roof-top where a sign said, "Taxi stand."
Down there swooped a plane before us: "Taxi, Lady?" came the cry.
Beverly mounted and I followed and we mounted to the sky.
As we flew I watched the pilot-- handsome lad with reddest hair,
To whom this celestial hacking seemed an everyday affair.
When he turned around I knew him--knew him by his twinkling eye:
Altus Ayers and not other, --Handsome, wide, and riding high!

Soon we flitted past a corner that looked like old times to me,
For it was that well-known corner where our High school used to be!
Now the place was changed to show a factory, twenty stories high;
And I noticed a small fish-stand there, as we were passing by.
And behind the greasy counter stood a man I knew at sight;
Yes, for it was Nodd Kennedy, shouting "Fish!" with all his might.
I looked out at him in wonder for whoever would have thought
That our old-time vice-president could to such a task be brought.

As we were going on our way, we stopped to chat with Ruby Griggs
Who told us of old Doug Smith's fame and his luck at raising pigs.
It seems that David Thompson could have been some athlete,
But something seemed to hold him back--guess it was those tiny feet.
On the Hi-way patrol was Jack Penwright who said Loreda Sherman
Had married a cowboy from Lorado and now owned a coat of Ermine.
And in Hollywood is Gene Cranfill with those dark and piercing eyes,
He's a gangster with the movies! Ye, Gads! What a surprise!
But the whole day brought surprises; Georgia was dancing on the stage;
Lillian was an opera singer; Martin a preacher, quite the rage!
Melvin a soldier; Lucille an author; Dwana an old maid, prim and neat;
Carolee had grown so very heavy, anti-fat was all she'd eat!

By and by we reached the home where Beverly lived,--her husband, too,
But he was a traveling salesman, so I didn't find out who!
I was very tired and sleepy, so I felt that it was best
To withdraw myself a little for an hour or two of rest.
I slept long and very soundly, and just judge of my surprise,
When again, after my slumber, I opened my drowsy eyes.
I found myself in the cottage I had lived in long ago,
Ere I started out that morning on that curious quest to go.

I sprang up and sought the window: Yes, it was the same old town,
That, in what seemed years ago, I had wearily lain down:
But the dream had been so life-like, that e'en yet I could not feel
That the vision I had witnessed could be otherwise than real.

So you see, dear friends and classmates,
That 'twas nothing but a dream
I've been telling, howe'er natural
And real to you must seem;
But in this old world of wonders,
Dreams have often times come true,
So, who knows but this, my vision,
May be realized by you.

.....Dwana Gregg

Class Poem

CLIMBING

As we climb forever upward
To the peak of our success,
Some may linger, looking backward,
To the days of C. H. S.

One 's life may be smooth-running,
Like a narrow, golden stream;
While another meets misfortune
In life's realistic dream.

Lest we forget the laughter
Of our hearts that set the pace,
Of war and of worries, then,
Never could be found a trace.

Let us go on as before,
Be one greater than the last;
Think of all those carefree days
Left behind us in the past.

Many lives have gone before us,
Each has strived to keep his vow:
To climb the very highest peak;
Looking forward even now.

CALUMET CHIEFTAINS OF 1950

The boys' basketball team of Calumet High School had a very successful season under the coaching of Mr. Kyle Wright ending the season with a record of fifteen games won and eleven lost. In the Mustang Tournament, they took second place and were District Champions but were stopped in the semi-finals of the Regional Tournament at Cordell by Loyal.

The team was composed of David Thompson, Douglas Smith, Nodd Kennedy, and Gene Cranfill, Seniors; Budd Kennedy, C. J. Hansen, Johnnie Thompson, Bill McCray, and Harry Lowder, Sophomores and Donnie Reese, a freshman.

The scoring was scattered out with every member a scoring threat. Leading are David Thompson with 189 points, C. J. Hansen with 184, Doug Smith with 161 and Nodd Kennedy with 118 points.

The girls team also won the District Championship with Beverly Laughlin and La Dwana Gregg, Seniors, Gearldine Knight, Junior; Betty Lou Nitzel, Junior; Norma Tully, Sophomore; and Wanda Cranfill, Freshman; Also, Ruby Griggs and Lucille Moberly, seniors; Caroline Kochenower, Bonnie Paulk, and Mary Ann Bomhoff, freshmen playing during the season.

All in all, we feel that both teams have had a very successful year to which credit is due both to the teams and to their able coach, Mr. Kyle Wright.

Last summer, when the new addition to our school was being built, the flag pole was taken down.

Until recently, there had been no opportunity to replace it. Each student was given the opportunity to participate by contributing a penny.

A few days before Open House, the foundation was being laid, a jar containing the names of the contributors was placed in the cement as a permanent record.

March 31, 1950 - Open House Day - marked the time for a special flag-raising ceremony and up went "Old Glory" to fly proudly over our school once again. - Rose Leck.
